TRADE MARK APPLICATION - NOTICE OF ACCEPTANCE

Applicant: Motorcycle Riders Association Victoria
Your Ref: BAYGmrav

Your Trade Mark Application No. 1411200 has passed the examination stage of the registration process. However, before your trade mark can be registered it must be advertised in our Official Journal to give other people an opportunity to oppose registration of your trade mark.

Your trade mark will be advertised on 30/06/2011 and you must pay the registration fee within 6 months of this date. Advertisement starts the three month opposition period. If you pay the registration fee now we will register your trade mark within two weeks after the opposition period has expired if no one has opposed the application.

As of the date of this Notice, the current fee to register your trade mark is $500.

You may pay your registration fee online at www.ipaustralia.gov.au/trademarks/tm_pay.shtml.

If your trade mark is successfully opposed and you have already paid your registration fee you will receive a full refund of your registration fee. You should also be aware that oppositions can continue to be raised until the trade mark is registered.

The final date for payment is 30/12/2011. Please ensure payment is received by IP Australia on or before this date otherwise your trade mark will lapse. Recovery from this situation involves additional costs and may not be possible if later applications closely resemble your lapsed mark.

If you are unable to make your payment online or have any other enquiries, please contact the Customer Contact Centre on: Phone 1300651010; Fax (02) 6283 7999 or email assist@ipaustralia.gov.au.

Trade Mark Application No.

For information about your trade mark, search ATMOSS at our website: www.ipaustralia.gov.au.

The enclosed leaflet explains the opposition period and contains other important information. It should be noted that in an opposition proceeding liability for costs begins from the date the Notice of Opposition is filed at IP Australia.
