Dear Scott,

I believe Chris Lamblin should apologise to me in writing and withdraw all slurs against my honesty and competence and that he should pay legal costs. If I get a letter clearing my good name, plus costs, I will consider the matter closed. I do not propose to publish Lamblin's letter of apology unless my good name is again smeared.

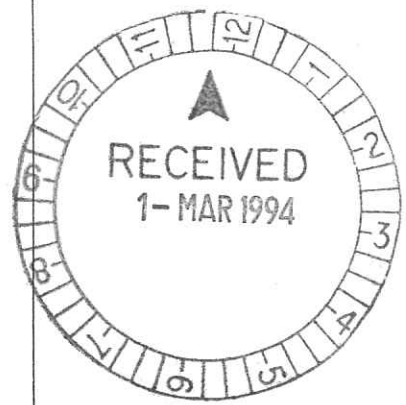

Sincerely,

Damien Codognotto.

Dear Sir,

RE: OUR OUTSTANDING ACCOUNT

We refer to our reminder for our account of 25th February 1994 and to your note in response.

Obviously Lamblin has chosen not to respond to our letter of demand. The next course of action for you if you wish to pursue the matter further is to institute proceedings for defamation which will result in additional costs being incurred by you. It would appear that Lamblin by ignoring our letter is clearly not going to respond to the allegations and has no intention of paying any costs. We take the view that as instructions were received from you you should pay the costs and should any further costs be recovered from Lamblin they can be credited and reimbursed to you.

Yours faithfully,
J.N. MARTIN & PARTNERS.

HOW MUCH?

What's the point of seeking help from a professional? Bit like going to a dentist & drilling your own teeth.
